

I tried to capture as much as I could of forage, nesting habitats and water in pictures scattered around the property. For forage, there are all the fallow blocks as well as all CH, PN and PM blocks which have different flora around the year. For the habitats, it's all areas there are different shrubs and trees, normally around seasonal streams. Finally water, pond and streams that always have water.