

Enclosed blue locations represent production and forage, and labeled points represent water and forage.