

An aerial photograph of a large agricultural field, likely a vineyard, with a green boundary line. The field is divided into several sections by dirt paths. A central label with a green arrow points to a specific location within the field. The surrounding area includes a canal on the left and other agricultural plots.

Sundial Merced 1 GUS II - 17